

Pin Trading is a fun way to join in the excitement of Universal Studios. You can purchase official trading pins at any Pin Trading location throughout the Park. Trade pins with Team Members and other guests!

Pin Trading 101

Only two pins may be traded with each Team Member.

Tradable pins must be made of metal and represent a licensed Universal event, location, character, attraction or icon.

Pins must have the official Universal Studios Pin Trading copyright stamp.

Always trade pins with backs securely fastened.

Pins that have been damaged or are in poor condition may be refused for trading purposes.

When trading with Team Members, you may only offer a pin that is not already displayed on the Team Member's lanyard.

No money or gifts may be exchanged for pins.

Name pins and lanyards medals may not be traded with Team Members.

Pin trading should be a fun and safe experience for everyone!

Now you are ready to be part of the entertainment!
After all, there is a Universe of Pins out there...